

CAPITALIZATION CRITERIA FOR RECOVERABLE POWER RESOURCES

Valeria MIRON

a University "Dunarea de Jos" of Galati, ROMANIA, 47 Domneasca St., tel: +40 236 414871, fax: +40 236 461353, e-mail vmiron@ugal.ro

ABSTRACT

The capitalization of recoverable industrial power resources represents the process of interception and total or partial usage of r.p.r. In many industrial technological processes a step-by-step capitalization is needed for r.p.r (for example for burning gases), thus, a distribution in more successive stages of the interception and usage of r.p.r, in order to use thoroughly and their optimization.

REFERENCES

- [1] ATHANASOVICI, V., „Heat usage in industry”, Ed.Tehnica, Bucuresti, 1997
- [2] MIRON, V., „Research on the usage of thermo-energetic resources with low potential by means of refrigerating installation with resorption”, doctoral dissertation, Galati, 1999